

Nun or Checkout Clerk - April Fallis - OSEU 2

My mom would sometimes sit and...she'd talk... and..."What do you want to be when you grow up?" Mine was a nun. Or I wanted to be a nun or...I wanted to be a...what do you call it at the grocery store? A clerk? A checkout clerk? I don't know why, but just the way they do it. Being a nun...I don't know if it's because my mom...when I was born, a nun named me. My mom asked her...or she asked mom what she was going to name me. She told her she didn't really know...she didn't have a name picked out. She said, "Well, name her April. She was born in the month of April." So that's how I got my name.
