

Love is My Job on Earth with Jace DeCory

That's I think that's part of my job on earth. I think Tukashula grandfather Grandfather God gave me that I guess charge to remind people to Love the land and love the earth and love the plants and all that grows on it all of us Because we're all related all of us are related.